To facilitate safe travel on the occasion of New year celebrations tomorrow night (31st of December), trains will be run till early morning hours of the 1st of January, announced HMRL MD Mr NVS Reddy. He stated that the last trains would leave the originating stations at 1 am and reach their destinations at around 2 am of 1st of January. He has also mentioned that Metro Rail police and security wings will keep a close watch to ensure that there is no drunken misbehavior on the part of anyone in the trains and stations.

Discussing about the arrangements for safe travel during late hours, L&tmrhl MD Mr KVB Reddy appealed to the passengers to co-operate with the authorities and travel responsibly in metro trains without giving any scope for untoward incidents.
